Altoelsammler (Kompl.)

CT4101

Mobile unit for collection of waste oil through the oil filler hole with a help of probe, as well as in a traditional way, through the oil drain with the help of funnel. Collected oil falls into a special container and is being disposed. Intake of oil is made by compressed air pressure of 10.8 bar. Quick and easy removal of waste oil from the engine or transmission. Glass antechamber is designed to control the quality and quantity of collected oil.

Specifications
Approval
Recommendation