

Clamp D50-70

D50-70

Hose Clamps are multi-use hose clamps for applications with high mechanical load. With their fundamental technical characteristics they still set the standarts for the modern clip construction. This kind of clips is used with cooling water and fuel connections, oil and air lines into the under and over-pressure range.